

Joyce's Jottings

A hint of fall is in the air. We have several great projects to celebrate the fall season. If you haven't been in lately you need to come by and get some inspiration.

Aleisha is starting another round of her Beginning Quilting. If you are interested please call and get all the info because this is the last beginning quilting class of the year.

I read there are only 115 days left until Christmas. It is time to begin those Christmas projects if you want to get a bit of a head start on the season. We have several ideas on display for your Christmas sewing.

Enjoy the cooler weather that is hopefully going to come and stay!
